

APRIL 12, 2013 ANNUAL SOTA CONFERENCE

What is the SOTA Conference?

The Student Occupational Therapy Association (SOTA) conference is an annual educational event that promotes the field of occupational therapy (OT). This event consists of multiple presentations by clinicians on topics in various practice settings (i.e. physical disabilities, psychosocial interventions, professional issues, etc.), occupation based kits and research being conducted by graduate level OT students at SVSU, and vendors from the community showcasing their organization and/or products. This event is organized and presented by occupational therapy students at Saginaw Valley State University in accordance with our mission statement.

For additional information please contact Jennifer Miles at jliles1@svsu.edu or the email on the right side of the flyer.
